IF ICE IS AT YOUR DOOR:

ACLU Kansas

1. YOU MAY VERIFY WHO IS AT THE DOOR

You can ask who it is. If it is ICE, remember your rights. Do not let them in without a warrant. Remain silent. Do not identify yourself. Do not show them identification.

If they say they are police, you can ask:

- What police department are you from? Ask to see identification.
- Do you have a badge or card? Ask them to slide it under the door.
- What is your name and title? Write this down.
- What type of uniform are they wearing? Does their uniform show the insignia of their law enforcement agency? Does the uniform identify what agency they are from? ICE agents often wear plain clothes or a black uniform without anything identifying them as ICE, whereas police officers usually wear uniforms that identify their agency.

2. YOU CAN DOCUMENT THE ENCOUNTER

- Record the encounter on video or audio.
- Write down what they said to you.
- Call for someone else in the house to witness the encounter.
- Call a neighbor to watch from the outside.
- Document the details of any search, violence or abuse.

3. YOU CAN REPORT WHAT HAPPENED

- Call your local Rapid Response Network to report the incident and to seek legal assistance, if needed.
